Threats see daily items with links to full stories on the web at PDB-Threats

Poverty
news list|forecast

- Liberation Theology has been put in the news again (paradoxically) by the Pope's visit to Latin America; for current resources see Jesus, Marx, and Liberation Theology and <http://www.liberationtheology.org/>

In Angola 20,000 people have been left homeless in clearing squatters from land for development.

Infectious Disease
news list|forecast

- A professor of epidemiology at the UCLA says the HIV pandemic could have been prevented and explains how to prevent the next potential pandemic -- Researchers Endorse Global Early Warning System to Prevent Pandemics.

The UN has again delayed destruction of samples of the smallpox virus -- although officially eradicated, and dangerous, there are scientific reasons to retain samples.

There are increasing cases of complications from drug-resistant bacteria among injured US soldiers in Iraq.

Environment
news list|forecast

- Megatons of African dust are falling on the Caribbean and Central America. [This natural process is exacerbated by past acts such as Firestone's clear-felling Liberia in the 1920s for rubber.] Separately: Asian dust plume might sway US climate-scientists -- "this is why dust and soot getting into the higher layers is so important. This is what makes a local (problem) into a global problem." [The news item includes a link to imagery of the dust plume.] Large dams behind India's methane emissions; they are responsible for about a fifth of the country's total global warming -- remember METHANE is a greenhouse gas too. DoE has commenced a carbon sequestration field test -- "the test is designed to evaluate the potential for geologic sequestration in mature Illinois oil reservoirs ..." [Comment: A profit motive in CO₂ sequestration is increased yield from oil reserves by pumping the gas into diminishing reservoirs.]

The Pan African Parliament says many of Africa's environmental problems are a result, directly or indirectly, of colonial exploitation -- "This problem is generated by countries in the West.... We are asking the Western nations to help us tackle the impact of this problem." [The Pan African Parliament was established in 2004 as one of the nine organs of the African Union.]

Deadly fish virus reaches Wisconsin lake -- "I'm worried because, inevitably, it'll wipe out fish". "Tennessee is serving as a funnel to bring in nuclear weapons and power waste from around the country to disperse into the landfills and recycling without public knowledge" -- U.S. Allows Radioactive Materials in Ordinary Landfills. The premature birth rate in the US is rising and growing evidence suggests pesticides and other environmental contaminants are to blame.

The office of DNI has been forced to declare that a NIE on climate change will not divert resources from subjects such as bin Laden or North Korea. [Comment: There is still a sense from the Right that climate change is girlie stuff; but, conversely, rapt attention to bin Laden and North Korea seems to have yielded little actionable intelligence.] A panel of US senior retired military officers consider that climate change is a "threat multiplier" and forecast a time when the number of failed states will increase rapidly -- Military Panel Calls Warming a Major Threat. The mayors of the world's biggest cities have met; "the fight to tackle climate change will be won or lost in cities" says Lord Mayor of London, Ken ("Red Ken") Livingstone -- Big City Mayors Strategize to Beat Global Warming.

Inter-State • The Bush administration looked for a "war czar"; instead it got a "junior war

Conflict
news list|forecast

coordinator" -- War czar compromise. [The official title is Deputy National Security Adviser for Iraq and Afghanistan Policy and Implementation.]

Oil arrangements consonant with US perceived interests is one of the unspoken preconditions for pulling out of Iraq but Iraqi lawmakers are still failing to agree on the terms of oil legislation. [Note on the day Baghdad was entered, the Oil Ministry was secured while the Museum was being looted.] Iraq is on the verge of collapse -- "across huge swathes of territory, [the Iraqi government] is largely irrelevant in terms of ordering social, economic and political life" says Chatham House [UK]. The US Army wants urgently to buy 3,700 Mine Resistant Ambush Protected vehicles (MRAPs) at about $1 million each, sending some 3,000 to Iraq. Pakistan [again] proposes a Muslim peace-keeping force for Iraq -- "a political solution is a dire necessity now. We have to stop all outside interference...".

Poppy Fields Are Now a Front Line in Afghan War – Western forces have the choice of tackling the “war on terror” or the “war on opiates”, but not both simultaneously. The German Defence Minister Franz has complained to NATO about the increased number of civilian casualties during US-led operations in Afghanistan.

Civil War
news list|forecast

↓ The worst fighting in Lebanon since the civil war broke out between Lebanese forces and Palestinians in a refugee camp in Tripoli, northern Lebanon; a new group thought backed by Syria may be involved -- Fatah al-Islam an emerging threat for Lebanon.

The UN says a humanitarian crisis worse than Darfur is developing in Somalia -- the speed and size of the exodus from Mogadishu has eclipsed the emergency in Darfur. The Somali Prime Minister Ali Mohamed Gedi has escaped a roadside bomb attack, at least the third attempt to kill him.

China is sending a special envoy to Sudan at the time a 100 members of the US Congress call on Chinese President Hu Jintao to reassess China’s investment in Sudan. The African Union force in Darfur [Sudan] is crippled by funding and equipment shortages and harassment by the Sudanese government and rebels -- AU peacekeeping mission in Darfur faces collapse.

The Zimbabwe Opposition Leader has agreed with the move by the Australian government to cancel a cricket tour of Zimbabwe later in the year. [A non-trivial event in the cricket-playing world.] Mugabe’s land seizures have guaranteed a famine as wheat harvests produce a fraction of previous years. Some three million Zimbabwean refugees may already be in South Africa illegally and South African President Mbeki warns that many more are certain to follow.

Russia and the US (and EU) remain on collision-course over Kosovo -- Rice says impossible for Kosovo to remain part of Serbia.

Genocide
news list|forecast

- Thirty years later ... the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia (ECCC) investigating the Khmer Rouge mass killings 1975-79 has now almost agreed on lawyers fees.

Other Atrocities
news list|forecast

- Relative peace in Uganda has not brought normalcy as unexploded munitions litter the countryside -- "How can you get over a war with these bombs everywhere?" In fact, "some 400 million people around the world live and work in what are effectively minefields, at daily risk of death or maiming ..." -- 400 million people live in "minefields".

Somalia has (in principle) agreed to UN investigation of widespread allegations of war crimes, disappearances, illegal detentions and other abuses.
